- ❖ Experienced in front-end frameworks including Bootstrap, Tailwind CSS, SASS and libraries for rapid Ul development.

- ❖ Skilled in React.js for building single-page applications (SPAs) and Redux for state management, ensuring robust and scalable front-end solutions. Familiar with Redux Toolkit for efficient Redux implementation and maintenance in complex applications.

- ❖ Knowledgeable in react framework for creating dynamic and interactive web applications.

- ❖ Competent in Reactjs for building efficient and maintainable user interfaces with reactivity and component-based architecture.Competent in Reactjs for building efficient and maintainable user interfaces with reactivity and component-based architecture.

- ❖ Proficiency in Next.js for server-side rendering (SSR) and building optimized React'-applications applications. Basic understanding of back-end technologies like Node.js and Springboot, enabling collaboration with back-end developers on full-stack projects.

- ❖ Familiarity with My SQI. for database management and integration with Node.js applications.

- ❖ Resolved complex issues related to browser and network performance, cross-browser and legacy IE compatibility, client-side scaling, data modeling, usability and testability.

- ❖ Skilled in debugging using browser developer tools to identify and resolve issues quickly.

- ❖ Committed to delivering clean, efficient, and maintainable code, meeting project deadlines and client expectations.

- ❖ Dedicated to continuous learning, staying updated with emerging technologies and industry trends in front-end development..

- ❖ Close communication with development team that included Java developers and front-end designers to ensure that the user interface remained true to spirit in all aspects.

- ❖ Strong grasp of UI/UX principles, ensuring high-quality user interfaces that prioritize usability and user experience.

- ❖ Excellent communication, analytical, interpersonal, problem solving and presentation skills.
